Old Business

STEEDA – Thank you for workers. The event was a success. Over 240 runs logged on Saturday. The Autocross event on Sunday had 30 cars.

Dixie is looking at the airport authority parking lot. There is construction on the terminal and the parking lot is rocky.

The Monticello carting volunteering accounting is settled.

New Business:

Subaru Challenge Autocross for the October/November timeframe.

- Dixie would provide the administration and timing
- Subaru participants would work the course.
- Need to get back (Russ Clark and Robert Lewis) with Subaru to workout the details (rental fees and profit share)
  - o $2000 site rental plus entry fees ($17 for SCCA insurance)

Other Business:

Waiting for a response from Advance Auto for possible sponsorship.

Motion was made to allocate $150 to purchase Ethernet cables, cable ends, a crimping tool and a spare set of timer heads. Motion passed unanimously.

-Talk to Shawn regarding the foam encasing for the timers used in Gainesville.

SEDIV in Gainesville had 53 cars and 27 trophies; Shane May, Robert Lewis and Dennis Quick amongst the winners.

Atlanta will have a night event on August 9.

July Autocross event will be hosted by Bryan Batchelor and Ian Barber.

Test and Tune in August to be determined.

Meeting adjourned at 8:17 PM
